

Board Director Position Description

Director Opportunity Position Description

Role of SCIO Board of Directors

Many prospective Board members currently serve, or have served, on organization boards and may come to SCIO with personal experiences and perceptions of how a board operates.

The SCIO Board of Directors functions as a policy board. The roles and responsibilities of the Board include those described below, but does not exclude any role or responsibility consistent with its role as a policy board. The Board carries out its responsibilities in a consultative fashion.

✓ Strategic Planning and Mission, Vision and Values

- The Board participates in the formulation and adoption of the organization's mission, vision and values.
- The Board ensures that the organization develops and adopts a strategic plan that is consistent with its mission and values, and which will enable the organization to realize its vision. The board participates in the development, and ultimately approves the strategic plan.

✓ Quality and Performance Measurement and Monitoring

The Board is responsible for establishing a process and schedule for monitoring and assessing performance in areas of Board responsibility including:

- Fulfillment of the strategic directions in a manner consistent with the mission, vision and values
- Approves an annual Quality Improvement Plan

√ Financial Oversight

- The Board is responsible for stewardship of financial resources including ensuring availability of and overseeing allocation of financial resources.
- The Board approves financial plans and approves the annual operating and capital budget.
- The Board monitors financial performance against budget.
- The Board approves investment practices and monitors compliance with policies.

√ Risk Identification and Oversight

• The Board oversees risk management including financial and non-financial issues.

✓ Oversight of Management including Selection, Supervision and Succession Planning for the CEO

The Board recruits and supervises the CEO by:

- Developing and approving the CEO job description
- Undertaking a CEO recruitment process and selecting the CEO
- · Reviewing and approving the CEO's annual performance goals

- Reviewing CEO performance and determining CEO compensation, tied to achievement of targets
- Ensuring succession planning is in place for the CEO and senior management

✓ Stakeholder Communication and Accountability

- The Board identifies the organization's stakeholders and understands stakeholder accountability
- The Board performs advocacy on behalf of the organization with stakeholders where required in support of the mission, vision and values and strategic directions of the organization

√ Governance

• The Board is responsible for the quality of its own governance

√ Legal Compliance

• The Board ensures that appropriate processes are in place to ensure compliance with legal requirements.

Remuneration

Members of the Board shall not receive any stated remuneration for their services, but they shall be entitled to be paid for their travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the affairs of SCIO, and in attending meetings of SCIO.

Time Commitment and Terms of Appointment:

Board Members are elected for a two-year term and can be re-elected for two additional terms of two years each for a total of six years.

The Board of Directors meets at least five times each fiscal year (April 1 – March 31) and there is one Annual General Meeting with Spinal Cord Injury Ontario membership. Directors are required to attend and participate at least 80 per cent of regular meetings and to be an active member of one Board sub-committee. Committees include: Finance, Advocacy, Quality, Marketing & Fundraising and Governance. Board members are also required to make a financial contribution and actively support fundraising activities and events.

SCIO is an advocate for equity and is committed to ensuring representation in its community. We welcome applications from individuals and others with the experience, skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities across the province. SCIO seeks to maintain its commitment to excellence and recognizes that increasing the diversity of its Board across the province supports this objective.

Given the essence of Spinal Cord Injury Ontario, lived spinal cord injury experience will always be considered an important criterion among the criteria that are part of any given search. SCIO is dedicated to achieving accessibility in volunteer positions for persons with disabilities, while ensuring an inclusive, barrier-free selection process. Reasonable and appropriate accommodation will be provided during the recruitment process upon request and addressed confidentially.

For further information about becoming an SCIO Board member, please refer to our Board of Directors' section on our website: http://www.sciontario.org/about-sci-ontario

Please send applications to lynn.francis@sciontario.org